2010 Season Preview

The Eaglettes' 16th season of competition in GISA AAA soccer looks extremely bright. Building on the 2009 squad's successes (13-7-0), Head coach James Jordan will be looking to bring back the coveted state title to Stratford for the first time since 2006. Although the team graduated standout seniors Colleen Beringer, Morley Conn, Mary Del Holleman, and Paige Hopkins, the Eaglettes return 6 starters and a bevy of young talent that will be competing to surpass last year's Final Four loss (4-2) to eventual state champions Westminster.

Leading the pack will be Senior Kendall Cowart, a 2009 all-region, all-state Senior midfielder who contributed 6 goals and 9 assists last season. Cowart will be ably assisted by Juniors Lauren Hale and Jasmine Pratts. Hale earned all-region recognition for her battling performances in midfield, as well as notching up 6 goals and 6 assists. Pratts returns in defense and her experience will be a vital factor in the 2010 campaign. Carrie Ellen Ford (Senior) and Nadia Gabriel (Junior) have both returned to the squad, following 2 year hiatuses. Mary Adger Bowen completes the Upperclassmen on the roster. Bowen, a senior, has been on the Varsity squad for 3 years.

The vast majority of the Eaglettes' squad will be composed of 9th graders. However, these are no ordinary freshmen, for, as 8th graders, they contributed 40 out of the team's 66 goals and 25 of 51 total assists. Returning as underclassmen will be Lane Bowden, Elizabeth Fuller (8 goals, 4 assists), Allie Hale (16 goals, 3 assists, all-region), Katie Hale (3 goals, 6 assists), Malone Slappey (6 goals, 5 assists), and Haley Tidwell (7 goals, 6 assists). Also joining up with the Varsity squad will be 9th graders Kate Bickley, Blaire Burton, Sarah Dennis, Baylee Vance, and Juliana White. Celia Dann will be pushing for playing time as an 8th grader, as well. The 2010 Eaglettes' coaching staff will be James Jordan (Head coach), Jeff Hale (Varsity, goalkeepers), Andrew Myler (B-team), and Dewayne Lawson (B, C-teams).
